Dear Vice Director-General Li:

We are extremely pleased to submit for your consideration the following Memorandum of Understanding between the State Council Information Office of China (SCIO) and Rubenstein Associates, Inc. (RA) regarding the conditions and terms of the assistance that RA will provide to SCIO in connection with its planned October 2002 exposition to be held in Washington, D.C.

The President of RA, Howard J. Rubenstein, and consultant to RA, Prof. Allen Weinstein, agree to work with SCIO officials and their designated representatives on receipt of a complete agreed upon list of exhibits and themes on the following:

1. Help obtain exhibition venue in Washington, D.C., contracts for which will be approved, signed and paid for by SCIO.
2. Help recruit significant organizations and individuals to cooperate and lend support to the exhibition and related activities.
3. Assist in editing the English text for the exhibition and related materials.
4. Plan symposium for Washington, D.C., prepare invitation lists and help obtain speakers in cooperation with SCIO.
5. Plan and execute all publicity for the exhibition and the symposium, including news conference, interviews and coverage of the exhibit in Washington, D.C.
6. Help publicize supporting events such as a ceremony at Arlington Cemetery.
7. Help plan a cocktail party and reception for the formal opening of the exhibition. This will include appropriate lists of prominent invitees. We believe it is important for you to retain an event production firm to help with the numerous logistics involved in the symposium and reception. We will help you identify and select an appropriate firm and determine, with SCIO's prior approval, what fee they will receive from SCIO.

In conformity with U.S. law, RA will register with the U.S. Government as a representative of SCIO for the duration of this agreement.

RA's fees for the services listed above will be $75,000 (U.S.). All out-of-pocket expenses will be paid by SCIO. The above services will be coordinated by RA and will commence upon SCIO wiring into RA's account the first project installment in the sum of $50,000 (U.S.). The second installment, $25,000 (U.S.), to be wired into RA's account after the venue has been secured and the guest lists have been reviewed and approved by SCIO. (Wiring data: J. P. Sincerely,

Howard J. Rubenstein

CALENDAR LISTING

CHINESE GOVERNMENT OPENS EXHIBIT
PAYING TRIBUTE
TO WORLD WAR II CHINA-U.S. COOPERATION

An exhibit that pays tribute to the enormous courage, sacrifice and friendship of American flyers and Chinese people during World War II will go on public display free of charge from October 18th through November 5th at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars in Washington, D.C.

From 1937 to 1945, the Chinese people lost countless lives in a horrific war waged against them by the military forces of Imperial Japan. It was during this massive conflict that, in the interest of common strategic purpose, Chinese and Americans forged a bond of shared sacrifice and cooperation that still stands today.

Military milestones including flying critical supplies across the Himalayas via "The Hump" airlift, General James Doolittle's Tokyo Raiders seeking refuge in China and the Flying Tigers that fought the Japanese Zero represent valiant chapters of shared experiences that paved the way to ultimate victory. This exhibition tells each of these stories through artifacts, recovered aircraft, period photos, and personal letters from a war-torn past that forged a legacy still celebrated today.
